A Letter from Wadsworth

Ladies and gentlemen,

Here is a carefully prepared list of persons, places and objects. Hidden among them are the three things I truly saw on that unfortunate night.

Over the coming days I shall give you puzzles and riddles. Each one you solve removes an item from the list. Solve them all and only three will remain. Those three will lead you to what happened that evening.

I wish you the very best of luck.

Yours faithfully,

Wadsworth the Butler
